"Golf, golf, golf!" wailed the wife as her husband started for the door with his clubs. "I really believe I'd drop dead if you spent one Sunday at home."

"Now dear," he answered, "there's no use talking like that. You know you can't bribe me."

C.J.C.A. AT LOCAL STORE

Under the sponsorship of the Solo Stores Organization, C.J.C.A. Radio Station sent their roving reporter, Bill Lee out to Ernie's Supermarket in Drayton Valley to interview the proprietors and some of their customers last Friday, April 29th. The next day the tape-recorded interviews were played back over C.J.C.A. and proved to be very interesting.

Apparently the station has quite a wide listener coverage in this area, as quite a number of people have said that they heard the program which was interspersed with musical and other broadcasts from ten in the morning until about two in the afternoon. Most of those who had heard the program had no advance notice of the local interest and just happened to be listening to C.J.C.A. during those hours.

MEAT MARKET CHANGES HANDS

Drayton Valley Meat Market changed hands recently when Carl Armbruster sold out his interests to Larry Johnson.

Mr. Johnson was raised in Kelliher, Saskatchewan. He worked in Saskatoon and Punnichay, Saskatchewan before going to Whitehorse, Yukon Territory, as shop foreman for Burns Co. He was in Whitehorse for five years. They had been residing in Waterous, Saskatchwan, for a while before coming to Drayton Valley.

His wife, Beverly, was raised in Kelliher, also. They have a daughter Michelle, 3 years old. Both quite young, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson should fit well into this area, which is made up largely of young married folks. Mr. Johnson is an enthusiastic sportsman, and for that reason he liked the North country very much.

LEGION GROUP GOES TO MERCOAL

A cavalcade of pickups went from Drayton Valley recently to Mercoal. The group consisted of Drayton Valley members of the Canadian Legion and they were going to Mercoal to pick up a large amount of furniture which was given to the local Legion group by the Mercoal Legion. Since the mines at Mercoal were shut down a couple of years ago, and with almost everyone moving away to find jobs elsewhere

DO NOT LISTEN TO UNQUALIFIED ADVICE

George P. Larrick, U. S. commissioner of Food and Drugs said, quote —

"IT IS ESTIMATED THAT APPROXIMATELY 50,000

Canvassers now sell vitamins and food supplements. These agents are not qualified to advise the public on matters of diet and health. Yet, many of them are in a sense practicing medicine without a license.

To make sales, they do not hesitate, in the privacy of the home, to recommend their products for the treatment of any disease condition.

When this leads to delay in obtaining competent medical treatment, it is very dangerous." (end of quote)

Commencing at nine o'clock, April 29th. Drayton Valley High School Students' Union put on their Second Annual April Prom. This fine event was conducted in the lovely new Frank Maddock High School Gymnasium.

For an hour before the program which started at 10:30 and was M.C.'d by Rupert Ibbotson, Ron Cotton and his group, "The Satellites" provided music for dancing. After the program was concluded Cotton and his group again provided dance music till the wee small hours.

First number on the program was the performance by the Glamourettes, "April Prom is Here Again". The Glamourettes then did a Tap Dance Number. Pat Armstrong followed with a song, "Don't Ask Me Why", and Judy Rowles sang a song entitled, "Fool Such As I".

CURLING CLUB NEWS

GENERAL MEETING.

The Drayton Valley Curling Club held their general meeting in the curling rink on April 21, 1960.

The executive for the 1960-61 season will be: President-Al Casey; 1st Vice President-Leo McKernan; Treasurer-Howard Cathres and Secretary Ken Walters.

The slate of directors elected is as follows: Sid Mitchell, Bert Demers, Bill Copeman, Roy Gelhe, Bill Couch and Bill Davies.

It was decided at the meeting that summer rentals for the Recreation Centre would be $50.00 minimum, or a 30-70 per cent split, which ever is greater. Any group wishing to put on an event in the large recreation centre may call Bill Copeman, at McKenzie's Shoe Store, Phone 341.

From Scoop's Notebook

Keith Smith, formerly with Canadian Surveys Ltd., has branched out on his own. With a partner, A.S. Doyle, formerly with the Mobil Oil Edmonton office, Keith has formed a surveying company called "Doyle and Smith Surveys, Ltd."

THE CASE OF MISTAKEN IDENTITY: In a big rush to finish the paper last week we opened the notebook and saw scribbled therein: "Kathy Clifton, of Edmonton, visiting Barbara for Easter". Took double-take on the note and couldn't completely remember the background circumstances. "Barbara? Barbara?" Must be Barbara Casey! So we put it in as "Kathy Clifton, of Edmonton was a visitor with Barbara Casey over the Easter Week-end."

Heading for Edmonton Sunday, we stopped at Twig Inn and there were the Fairman's. First thing Barbara Fairman said was, "Don't you ever read your paper? and all of a sudden, in rush of horror, we remembered that Barbara Fairman herself had giv en us the item, and it was her sister, and not Mrs. Casey's visitor.

Just think, if Mrs. Fairman was surprised to lose a dearly beloved sister, just like that, in print, think how surprised Mrs. Casey must have been to have gained (in print) an unknown visitor. Our apologies to all concerned.

While we are on that subject our conscience won't let us rest until we have set you-all straight on just who was behind that skin-divers mask at the Oil Wives Fashion Show. We were out of the room, changing films in the camera when the skin-diver came on, and he was gone by the time we got back. Someone said it was Roy Gleck, so we said it was Roy Gleck behind the mask. The ink on the paper was barely dry before we learned that it was NOT Roy Gleck, but Mike Holder. Again, our apologies to both.

The Two Most Powerful Words

Taken from the April issue of "Good Business".

"It's a cutthroat world in business today, and I'm afraid the end is near for me." So spoke an uncle of mine, when I was a small child.

I remember sitting in the room with others, and hearing him give his opinions often. He owned a small candy shop that was a place of great delight to my brothers, sisters, and me. Now I knew, from the conversation between Uncle Lon and the other relatives, that the candy store would soon be out of the family. His fears were contagious.

"I'm afraid I can't make it any longer with the store. I'm afraid the chain grocery will cut me out. I'm afraid I'd better sell out before it is too late."

After school we always rushed to his little shop. Once it had been filled with many children, clamoring for penny sweets. Our once-jolly uncle now met us with sad eyes, as he handed us tiny sacks of chocolate drops and peppermints.

"See, children? Where is everyone? I'm afraid your old uncle won't be having a store much longer. I'm being choked out by that other store."

Even at ten years of age, I felt that his attitude of unhappiness was not the right way to get business. I said: "Please don't talk that way, Uncle Lon! You really have the best candy of all. All the kids'll come back. Wait and see."

"No, Ruthie, no, I'm all through. You just wait. I know. I'm all done."

How long it took for his negative "prayer" to be answered, I do not recall. But before long, Uncle Lon's words of dark prophecy came true. Business slacked off to the point where he had to sell the store. The last I heard, a modern candy shop operated there with the chain grocery still functioning across the street.

Why? Does the present owner-manager have a better personality?

No, I cannot believe that. I remember Uncle Lon as a happy, magnetic friend to everyone, before he let the powerful words, "I am" lead him over to the wrong side of life. He seemed to flounder after that, working at one job after another, but never finding himself. I remember that someone asked him if he prayed for help, and he declared that he did, but he guessed it was "God's will that I am a failure."

When the Psalmist prayed, "Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart Be acceptable in thy sight, O Jehovah, my rock, and my redeemer," what did he mean?

I believe David meant that we are to pray positively with every word and thought in order that God's will be us (which is always good) may be worked out accordng to His supreme plan. It is never God's fault when we pervent prayer power into negative results.

Christ said that He and the Father are one. He promised: "I am with you always." It is also written that "as he thinketh in his heart, so is he." These statements tell an impressive sermon about the power of "I am" prayer.

"Lo, I am with you always." Christ is with us and in us. If we accept this, then we know that He is in us and we are in Him. Therefore, all statements of "I am" should be of good, for God is only good.

But He created us free--free to choose, to ask, and to be answered as we ask. This is a universal spiritual law.

Alexis Carrel, famous doctor and scientist, once said that "Prayer is.....the most powerful form of energy that one can generate." Few would deny this--and our every belief, statement, and thought of being is payer.

If we pray negatively all day by living negatively, we nullify our briefer, direct petitions to God. Most of us spend most of our time in circulation, and in dealing directly with people and things, rather than in an "upper room" of physical quiet and solitude. So we must, and do, pray as we live.

Which shall it be?

"I am weak, nervous, sick, fearful, failing, and bankrupt," or

"I am one with God and His good therefore, I can do all things through Him who strengtheneth me. I am strong, courageous, healthy, successful and creative. I am a co-worker with Him in keeping His world harmonious."

Truly, the two words "I am" are wonderfully powerful, for they precede fulfillment.

DRAYTON VALLEY ATHLETIC ASSOC.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING.

The Drayton Valley Athletic Association held in Annual General Meeting on April 28th, 1960 at the Elk's Hall. There were approximately 70 people in attendance.

Reports from the various sections of the Association were made, and the ones that have been in operation have been well represented and quite successful. The functions that were unable to get started, mainly due to lack of facilities, are still being considered, and it is hoped that the difficulty now being experienced can be overcome this year, and several more sports become available.

There was discussion on the playground situation, the general feeling being that more are required. Mr. Ells, the President of the Association, said that more playgrounds are already being planned.

The question of a girls soft ball group being formed, was brought up, and diamonds will be available for this.

The Boxing club announced their next card, which will be at the Elk's Hall on May 12th at 8:00 p.m. There will be several Edmonton clubs represented, and a good evening's boxing is promised.

The election of officers and board members followed.

The new executive for the coming year being:-

President-Jack Falls; Vice President-Skip Wilson; Secretary-Dorothy Worthington; Vice Secretary -Morley Suitor; Treasurer-Pete Nebo.

Keep your Bible open and you will not find the door to heaven shut.

Text: "Thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church." Matthew 16:18.

We look at a child taking his first unsteady steps and through eyes of faith see him as a tall, strong man.

Christ looked at the vacillating Simon and saw him as Peter, the rock of strength upon whom He could build His church. This transformation was wrought by the indwelling of the Holy Spirit.

What might we become if we were to allow the Holy Spirit to do His work in us? Another Peter? It is a possibility.

The Board of Directors for the coming year:-

Gordon Cross, Dennis Middleton, Les Tucker, Marion Palmer, Ken Machan, Eldon Herbert, Red Fuhr, Mac McLean, Sid Mitchell, George Leckie, Bert Demers, Ole Olson, Duncan Schoepp, Gordon Tucker, Chuck Dion, Andy Anderson.

Mr. Falls thanked the past executive and board members for their work, time and effort put into making the Association a success, and he welcomed the 11 new members to the board.

Eventually, the board meetings will be held in the town hall, and when this becomes possible, anyone who wishes, is invited to attend.

Dorothy Worthington,
Secretary.

BUCHHOLTZ CONSTRUCTION LTD.

New Life for Steven

Steven Kupfenschmidt, of the men's wear department, Drayton Valley Northern Store, goes over his selection of work socks with a resident of the newly-important oil centre.

DRAYTON VALLEY ---- For Steven Kupferschmidt the world has become a pleasant and well ordered place. It was not always so.

He must be reminded of the contrast as he turns up for work in the morning at the H.B.C. Northern Store here, or when he sits at night in his home--listening to classical records on a new stereo hi-fi set. For him the humdrum of daily routine will always be a cherished possession; he's had enough adventure for a lifetime.

Born in Yugoslavia, Steven went with his family to Hungary when he was 15, was "stuck there," and had to learn a new language and a new way of life. Finally, finished school, he was able to open his own store but in 1951 the Government took it over and he later became a cost accountant in a mining machinery factory.

ESCAPE TO AUSTRIA

During the revolution he and his fiancee escaped over the border into Austria where the pair married and for a time Steven--who spoke Yugoslavian, Hungarian and German--worked as a translator.

Like many young people from the unsettled background of Europe, Steven and his wife longed to come to Canada. There was a relative in Drayton Valley. They set their sights on this Alberta oil town and finally managed to get passage.

"I had 87 cents when I reached Drayton Valley," recalls young Steven. I borrowed $25 to get started. My wife got a job. I, for the first time in my life, worked as a labourer and was grateful to get the job in construction. That was August, 1957--before there were any side walls, before the new hospital or trailers. We got a skid shack and slept on the floor until we got some furniture."

Steven, at the end of October, was able to use his past experience as a retailer. The Bay hired him as one of the first local employees for the new Northern Store and now he is in charge of men's wear.

He is full of enjoyment in his work in the immaculate and modern store. He has furnished a larger home. He has made new friends. And, although his English is fluent now, he has decided to carry on with his English course at night school. He even has the time and opportunity now to indulge in his favorite sport--Scuba diving, a kind of advanced skin diving.

Life looks up for Steven Kupferschmidt.

Mr. and Mrs. Styker lost a quantity of clothing on Sunday when a fire of unknown origin broke out in the porch of their trailer. Neighbors formed a bucket brigade and kept the flames from spreading until the fire crew came. No insurance was carried.

While on our holidays recently, we spent an enjoyable few hours with Mr. and Mrs. Michael Burke at Porcupine Ranger Station west of Clareshoim recently. Their home is in a very scenic spot among great rolling hills, with a back drop of snow-capped mountains. Game abounds in the area, and the elk are so tame that they come up to the front porch. Mr. and Mrs. Burke are well and send greetings to all their Drayton Valley friends.

The Helmut Wiechert and the Donald Hills will come back to Alberta to live soon. The Wiecherts to Edmonton and the Hills to their farm at Edson. Helmut and Donald finished a lumbering contract in Quesnal just before Easter, and the two families spent a few days in Vancouver before packing up to move.

On the afternoon of Wednesday, April 27, Mrs. Clarence Dunington entertained at her home in honor of Miss Jo Anne Bartlett whose marriage to Mr. Allan Fawcett of Edmonton took place in St. Andrews Church, Edmonton on April 30.

About twenty friends and neighbors of the Bartlett family attended to extend good wishes and present gifts to the prospective bride. In addition, each guest wrote her favorite recipe for the new homemakers cookbook. After opening her gifts Miss Bartlett expressed her thanks very charmingly and the remainder of the afternoon passed pleasantly in social enjoyment to the delicious refreshments served by the hostess.

the Legion was disbanded. The Town itself closed last fall and has become a "ghost Town" since then. Many of the houses and buildings have been moved out.

The group going from here to the mountain town consisted of Ralph Boles, Ed Sanderlin, Lou Matlock, Bill Davies, Len Charbonneau, Jerry Donovan and Charlie Koehler. Jerry worked in Mercoal for a number of years, and moved to Drayton Valley after the mines shut down.

The group picked up 27 tables, 42 folding chairs and 24 very fine armchairs. They expect to go back soon and pick up the piano and a number of recreational facilities, with the possibility of getting the snooker table which the Mercoal group had. While the mines were operating the Mercoal Legion was a very active group.

The local Legion has helped out in a number of Community enterprises. They sponsored Little League, and looked after it for three years. Little League is now under the sponsorship of the Drayton Valley Athletic Association. The Legion was the original sponsors for the Pembina Boxing Club and gave the use of the Club Legion Hall to the boxing group for practice all winter.

Boxing Club News

Drayton Valley's Pembina Boxing Club members gave a good account of themselves when they went over to Rocky Mountain House last Saturday evening.

The three Combs boys, Ruffus, Orvin and Marvin were among those who went; Garry Mastre, Barry Thompson and Garry Johnson, were others of the local boxing club who went along.

Jack Falls, president of the Drayton Valley Athletic Association and Gordon Cross, Don Compton and Dennis Powers, instructors in the boxing club took the boys down, and worked with them while they were in the ring. Don Compton acted as a judge for the fights.

No match was found for Garry Mastre, but the rest of the local boys were all in the ring. Ruffus with no one in his weight class available, fought an exhibition, no decision bout. Orvin, apparently not in his best style, ran up against a tough and wary little boxer and lost the decision. The rest of the local boys all won their matches, which is a first-class showing for the local boys, away from home.

On May 12th, next Thursday, a ten-bout card will be put on in Drayton Valley Elks Hall by the local boxing club. These have proved very entertaining in the past and the coming fights on the 12th should be as good or even better. The local boxing club boys are gaining experience and confidance all the time and are getting to be a hard combination for other clubs to beat.

FUR BUYERS OF 1960

Staff Picture

Echoes of 1670 were ringing in Drayton Valley when the Drayton Valley unit of the world's oldest mercantile establishment, the Hudson's Bay Company, purchased furs during the winter months.

A considerable number of beaver pelts have been bought by Mr. Lorne Klapp, manager of the Drayton Valley Hudson's Bay store. Apparently, there is still an unusually large amount of beaver in this area. Some squirrel and muskrat furs have also been purchased by the local store. Drayton Valley district is one of the older fur producing sections of Alberta.

The above picture was taken on May 2nd. 1960, just 290 years after the company was first formed in England for the purpose of carrying on trade in the New World. Fur buying has always been, and still is, an important function in almost all the Hudson's Bay Northern stores scattered throughout northern Canada.

In the above picture Mr. Malcolm Cambridge, Credit manager of Drayton Valley's Hudson's Bay store and Mr. Lorne Klapp, manager of the local store, display beaver pelts which were purchased recently in Alder Flats.
